

TAELLN401 - ADDRESS ADULT LEARNING, LITERACY & NUMERACY

From July 2014, the elective unit TAELLN401 Address Adult Language, Literacy and Numeracy Skills became a core unit in the TAE40110 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment.

All new and existing trainers must hold, or demonstrate equivalent competency for, the unit TAELLN401.

The unit TAELLN401 Address Adult Language, Literacy and Numeracy Skills (LLN) expands on these areas to give trainers a more comprehensive understanding of LLN issues in training and assessment practice.

The unit describes the skills and knowledge that you need to:

- determine the core LLN requirements of training
- access specialist learning support
- customise training to support the development of core LLN skills.

Competency in this unit does not indicate specialist adult LLN practitioner skills

In simple terms, the unit is about being aware of the balance between the LLN demands of the training environment, the LLN requirements of the training program and the LLN skills of your students.
